Quiet Please!

[Too Much Has Already Been Said]

Arr. O.A.U. Authority

1. With words you can build mount-ains in
2. When you hear the lat - est ru - mour,
3. Some-times you hear a ru - mour, a just a mo - ment's time. Than take it to tear down or the talk of the town. Did you try to de - fend, or sto - ry fly'ing a - round. Did you try to con-firm, and e - ven long - er to climb. Words can se - pa - did you help to tear down. Se - crets that were ve - ri - fy whe-ther 'tis true. Or you just con - rate, they con - demn and cri - ti - cize and shared and were meant to be kept Oh clude; please do watch what you pro - claim. 'Cause

14

e - ven best of friends___ are some - times jeo - par - dized.
don't talk in a crowd___ and lat - er you'll re - gret.
words when wrong-ly spok-en, you'll nev - er e'er re - claim.

Chorus

18

Qui - et please! Too much has al-read - y been said, just 22

let it be and learn to lis - ten in - stead for 26

some - times thro' the si - lence big prob-lems be-come small and if you___ have noth-ing good to say_____ say noth-ing at all.

30